I have charge of the horses for the present time and it is mean work in winter for they are always covered with mud. This is only a temporary assignment. Capt. Watters is sick back in a base hospital. We are all hoping for his speedy recovery. Major Robbins, who has also been sick, was back with us to-day. He is a great man and loved by all.

I am writing small as this is the only folder I have left here to-night. My stationery is in my room and I am writing in the officers mess hall. We managed to get some chocolate to-day. There are many new faces in the outfit now that were not here when I left them in Champagne.

Ringen, Germany.
Jan. 10th 1919.

My dearest Mother,

I have been very lucky with mail since I came here for in 11 days I have received 15 letters. The latest was Dec. 4th; that is the latest from the U.S.A. Because I received a letter from Hamblat, dated Dec. 22, and one from Wilson, my roommate at Louge dated Dec. 30th. Most of my letters were written in Nov. and the two from you were the 22nd and 25th. Wilson has gone into another department for settling claims as he handles the French language excellently.

Did I ever tell you about Mc Cummen? Well he was shot by a fragment in his heel. It did not seem to be very serious but the Doctor made a slip in cutting it out and cut two nerves. Now, he will probably always limp and was placed in class D to be immediately returned to the "States". He certainly has a host of friends in the regiment.

Kelly is back in B. Battery and so is Monk but Monk has been away on a horse detail for about 3 weeks and hasn't returned yet. They were ordered home and after they reached the port of embarkation their orders were canceled. I believe Monk got as far as England and was then sent back.

We will probably visit Berlin and Petrograd before returning home. I am looking out for the Xmas package. Had a nice letter from Louise Moseley to-day. So Barry R. is in the Tank corps. Well, I would like to see him. Hamblet wrote me that he had seen Mark Ham and Coach Bible. Hamblet is at Toul, France now. His address is The 85 (85) Aero Squadron, A.E.F.

Lots of love to all. Have all to write me. Postals cards are appreciated. ^{Love from your son}
